

Celebration of International Women Day @ School of Commerce and Management Studies

Acknowledging the daunting challenges that the women face in balancing their professional and personal lives, the School of Commerce and Management Studies organized a small event in Dhauladhar Parisar-II. Prof. Dipankar Sharma, Dean, SCMS conceded that females put in lot of hard work and contribute significantly towards the success of the organizations. He emphasized that there is a need to develop an empathetic attitude towards the female employees in organizations who give their unflinching support for the growth of organizations. The female faculty of SOCMS, Dr. Bhawna, Dr. Manpreet and Dr. Aditi shared their experiences and emphasized on the need to create an enabling work environment for the overall growth and development of its employees. The School felicitated its female faculty by giving them a bouquet as a token of appreciation. The female faculty too appreciated and thanked the organizers for the heartwarming event.
