Item No. 38.11:

To place before the Academic Council the matter regarding proposal to change the name of "Women Cell (Mahila Prakosht)" to the "Centre for Women Studies and Development" for approval.

It is submitted before the Academic Council that the University has a women's cell whose scope is very narrow. Naming it as "Centre for Women Studies and Development" (CWSD) rather than a Women's Cell will offer several distinct advantages and align with broader educational and societal goals including Academic Rigor and Research Focus ( Ensuring a robust academic foundation contributing to knowledge generation and dissemination in the field of gender studies), Holistic Approach to Women's Empowerment and Interdisciplinary Collaboration & Engagement. It can engage in policy research, advocacy, and consultancy, influencing systemic changes that address gender disparities at institutional and societal levels. The Centre will enrich the educational experience, contribute to the societal change, and position CUHP as a leader in promoting gender equality and women's development in Himachal Pradesh and beyond.

Keeping in view the above and the academic interest of the narishakti the matter was being placed before the Academic Council for approval.

The Academic Council after deliberation on the matter approved the proposal to rename the "Women Cell (Mahila Prakosht)" as the "Centre for Women Studies and Development (CWSD)." The establishment of the Centre for Women Studies and Development was endorsed as a significant step forward in promoting gender equality and women's empowerment at the university and beyond and further recommended to Executive Council for its approval.
