Brief Report On Vigilance Awareness Week

Under the scheduled program of Vigilance awareness week 2022, today on 7th of November 2022, we the Central University family celebrated the vigilance awareness day with this year's theme "Corruption free India for a developed nation" at our all campuses.

Vice Chancellor Office

The pledge was administered by the Chief Vigilance officer of the University, currently, Prof. A. K. Mahajan, to all the employees of the Vice Chancellor Office at a ceremony held at the front yard of the VC Office. At the other campuses, the respective campus coordinators administered the pledge.

The address focused on

- How corruption has been and continues to be a major obstacle in economic, political and social development of the country.
- Therefore there is urgency for all organizations and individuals to work in together to eradicate the menace of corruption from our day to day activities.
- The government, citizens all need to do their bit to get rid of corruption from all walks of life from our country.
- To achieve this, all citizens need to be vigilant and commit themselves to standards of honesty and integrity at all times to support the fight against corruption.
- Observance of the Vigilance Awareness Week every year is part of the multi-pronged approach of the Central Vigilance Commission.

Integrity Pledge

The pledge taken by employees and students of the University is as follows:

- I believe that corruption has been one of the major obstacles to economic, political and social progress of our country.
- We believe that all stakeholders such as Government, citizens and the private sector need to work together to eradicate corruption.

- We realize that every citizen should be vigilant and commit to the highest standards of honesty and integrity at all times and supports the fight against corruption.

We, therefore, pledge:

- To promote ethical business practices and foster a culture of honesty and integrity;
- We shall not offer or accept bribes;
- To follow probity and rule of law in all walks of life;
- To neither take nor offer bribe;
- We commit to good corporate governance based on transparency , accountability and fairness;
- We shall adhere to relevant laws, rules and compliance mechanisms in the conduct of business;
- We shall adopt a code of ethics for all our employees;
- We shall sensitize our employees of laws, regulations, etc. relevant to their work for honest discharge of their duties;
