Vice Chancellor Office

The pledge was administered by the Chief Vigilance officer of the University, currently, Prof. A. K. Mahajan, to all the employees of the Vice Chancellor Office at a ceremony held at the front yard of the VC Office. At the other campuses, the respective campus coordinators administered the pledge.

The address focused on

- How corruption has been and continues to be a major obstacle in economic, political and social development of the country.
- Therefore there is urgency for all organizations and individuals to work in together to eradicate the menace of corruption from our day to day activities.
- The government, citizens all need to do their bit to get rid of corruption from all walks of life from our country.
- To achieve this, all citizens need to be vigilant and commit themselves to standards of honesty and integrity at all times to support the fight against corruption.
- Observance of the Vigilance Awareness Week every year is part of the multi-pronged approach of the Central Vigilance Commission.

Integrity Pledge

The pledge taken by employees and students of the University is as follows:

- I believe that corruption has been one of the major obstacles to economic, political and social progress of our country.
- We believe that all stakeholders such as Government, citizens and the private sector need to work together to eradicate corruption.
- We realize that every citizen should be vigilant and commit to the highest standards of honesty and integrity at all times and supports the fight against corruption.

We, therefore, pledge:

- To promote ethical business practices and foster a culture of honesty and integrity;
- We shall not offer or accept bribes;
- To follow probity and rule of law in all walks of life;
- To neither take nor offer bribe;
- We commit to good corporate governance based on transparency , accountability and fairness;
- We shall adhere to relevant laws, rules and compliance mechanisms in the conduct of business;
- We shall adopt a code of ethics for all our employees;

- We shall sensitize our employees of laws, regulations, etc. relevant to their work for honest discharge of their duties;
- We shall provide grievance, redressal and whistle Blower mechanism for reporting grievances and fraudulent activities;
