A Report on “India and International Labour Organization: A Success Story of 100 Years”

Curiosity Club and Leisure Club, Himachal Pradesh Kendriya Vishwavidyalaya Business School (HPKVBS), School of Commerce and Management Studies, Central University of Himachal Pradesh and Literary Club and Page Turner Club of HPKVBS organized a Lecture on “India and International Labour Organization: A Success Story of 100 Years” on 10th October 2022 at 02:30 pm in Seminar Hall of Dhauladhar Parisar – II, Dharamshala.

The resource person for the talk was Dr. Kakkar, Former Professor, University of Delhi. Prof. Mohinder Singh, Dean and HoD, HPKV Business School, School of Commerce and Management Studies welcomed the honorable guest and expressed his delight on having a distinguished academician having an illustrious teaching career spanning more than four decades share his vast knowledge with faculty and students. Dr. Aditi Sharma provided a glimpse of the talk by sharing the profile of the distinguished speaker with the audience.

Dr. Kakkar made a lucid presentation on the impact of ILO on the labour legislation in India. He discussed how India being the original founding member of ILO has ratified and adopted various conventions and recommendations of ILO and incorporated them by enactment of laws and amendments in existing labour laws. India has ratified six out of eight core fundamental convention of ILO. Prof Kakar shared that he has written a book to commemorate the 100 years of ILOs existence as a beacon of social justice working relentlessly for the empowerment of labour across world. The book describes the journey of ILO since its inception to the present and how Indian labour legislation and trade union activity has been shaped by the ILOs Declaration on fundamental principles and right at work.

Dr. Bhawna Bhardwaj, expressed gratitude to Prof Kakar for an enlightening talk. In his closing remarks, Prof. Dipanker Sharma highlighted the importance of such talk in broadening the knowledge horizon of attendees.
